

Keytesville Chamber of Commerce Elects New Officers

Participants at a Chamber of Commerce meeting held on November 5, 2014 at the Keytesville Community Center for the purpose of continuing efforts to revitalize the Chamber have elected officers for the upcoming year. Newly elected officers are President Cecelia Sehlke, Vice-President Nathan Asbury, Secretary Dora Palmer and Treasurer Susan Littleton.

The next meeting has been scheduled for December 3, 2014 at 6:00 PM to be held at the Keytesville Community Center. Items on the agenda for this meeting are finalization of amended By-Laws, set policy and establish priorities on issues that affect the community and businesses. All businesses, organizations and public minded citizens are invited to attend.

The new mission statement for the Keytesville COC is “The Chamber is a volunteer, membership-supported organization working to promote business and community growth and development, retention and expansion of existing businesses and promote programs of civic and cultural nature which are designed to increase functional and aesthetic values of the community”.
