

Keytesville Chamber of Commerce Moves Forward

Participants at a meeting on October 6, 2014 at the Keytesville Community Center voted to continue to reorganize the Keytesville Chamber of Commerce. Those attending included owners or representatives for home based business, retail business, farming, charitable organizations and civic non-profit organizations, as well as public minded citizens and officials.

The new mission statement for the Keytesville COC is “The Chamber is a volunteer, membership-supported organization working to promote business and community growth and development, retention and expansion of existing businesses and promote programs of civic and cultural nature which are designed to increase functional and aesthetic values of the community”.

Meetings will be held the first Wednesday of each month at 12:00 PM at locations selected by the membership. The next meeting is scheduled at the Keytesville Community Center on November 5, 2014 at 12:00 PM. Items on the agenda for this meeting are the election of new officers and board of directors, COC By-Laws, policies and projects going forward.

Membership dues are $25 per year and all are welcome to attend or join the Chamber.
