

The October meeting of the Keytesville Chamber of Commerce was held at the The Café at noon. Members present were Lowell Newsom, Janet Waever, Robbie Wheeler, Bob Littleton, Susan Littleton, Megan Fox and Cecelia Sehlke.

The secretary's minutes were read by Cecelia Sehlke and approved as read. There were no outstanding bills at this time but Sehlke will be purchasing decorations for Sterling Price Park for the Trunk or Treating on Saturday September 29.

The specifics of the plan for Halloween were discussed and finalized.

As for new business Sehlke suggested that the Chamber of Commerce stat a new flier/handbook/ for new business and/or citizens who come to Keytesville.

The same concern of low attendance by paid members was also discussed. The selection of a new officers' slate will be coordinated by the committee of Lowell Newsom, Robbie Wheeler, Shirley Morris and Megan Fox.

The date of the next meeting is November 21. Details will be sent through Dora Palmer to the members.
